

'Song of Norway' to Open Tonight on College Campus

"Cheers, bravos, and hand-clapping will be a long time dying out when 'Song of Norway' opens in the El Camino Campus Theater today," according to impartial observers who have sneaked preview glimpses of the production during rehearsals.

Constructed from the life and tunes of Edvard Grieg, "Song of Norway" is a roman-

Local VFW Picks Moore

Leadership of the Torrance Post 3251 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars passed recently to Art Moore, active in the post for many years and the city's plumbing inspector.

Installed during mass ceremonies with the auxiliary in Long Beach Municipal Auditorium, Moore received the charge from Commander R. L. Roudebush, of Indiana. A banquet at the Wilton preceded the installation. The veterans returned to the Wilton after the auditorium rites for a rally and dance.

Installed to serve with Moore were James McVay, senior vice commander; Percy Baker, junior vice commander; Clifford Boots, chaplain; Robert Rigles, quartermaster, and Harold Boots, surgeon.

Among the activities planned for the summer include a VFW softball team in the summer league here and the formation of a boys drill team. Boys between the ages of 14 and 17 are being requested to contact Commander Moore about the team.

Ryan Cancels Plan to Put Pod Job Here

Plans to transfer the huge DC-8 Jetliner pod and pylon assembly project from San Diego to Torrance was canceled this week when additional land was available near its San Diego facilities, officials of Ryan Aeronautical announced yesterday.

Approximately 600 Ryan employees are engaged in the Jetliner project, and the move would have involved dislocation and transfer of numerous employees and their families, officials said. It is anticipated that up to 1000 employees may soon be assigned to this one project.

The Torrance plant is presently geared to quantity production of the nation's leading remote-controlled jet target drone, the Firebee, which is being supplied to the Air Force, the Navy, and the Canadian Air Force.

tic period piece of the first water. Included in the cast are Fred Lincoln, of Torrance, as Nordrask; Lee Smith, of Manhattan Beach, as Nina; Bruce Steiner, of Hawthorne, as Grieg; L. Lyne O'Dell, of Hermosa, as Father Grieg; Neal J. Jardine, of Hawthorne, as Father Nordrask; June Pitcairn, of Lawndale, as Mother Grieg; Michael Binette, of Redondo, as the Count; Marjorie Gibson, of Hawthorne, as the Countess; Jayne Turner, of Torrance, as Frau Professor Norden; Barbara Baldwin, of Garden Grove, as Miss Anders; Gary Shaffer, of Gardena, as Ibsen; Charles Turner, of Hermosa, as Pisoni, and Taha Rey, of El Segundo, as Adellina.

Donald Ferguson is designing the show, Calvin Greer conducting the orchestra, and Neil Hill directing the ensemble. Choreography is by Don Weissmuller, costumes are by James and Winnie Chandler Logan, technical direction by Leslie Thomas, assisted by Lucille Liberatore, and all are under the supervision of general director Burnett Ferguson.

Two Show Bus Trips Scheduled

Theatre-going is a special new activity of the Torrance Recreation Department offered to both children and adults.

The first theatre party for children will be Saturday, May 17, when the "Theatre Bus" of the Department will transport the children to the make-believe world of "The Drone on the Throne" presented by the Santa Monica City College Dramatic Arts Department. The bus will leave from the City Hall Parking Lot at 2 p.m.

Reservations for children, 7 and older, should be made by calling the department before May 12, for the trip.

On Friday, May 16, the adults will catch their "Theatre Bus" at the City Hall Parking Lot at 7 p.m. for the second adult theatre trip. Those on the first trip in April were so enthusiastic that this trip to the Pasadena Playhouses to see "Teahouse of the August Moon" was immediately planned.

Adults also should make their reservations before May 12 by calling the Torrance Recreation Department.

Club Serves 1700 Dinners

More than 1700 free barbecue dinners were served by the Serra Mothers' Club last Sunday at Serra High School's eighth annual "Fiesta."

The "Fiesta" and dinner were sponsored by the mothers and fathers to improve the educational facilities of the school.

Included in the program are the purchase of a large number of books for the library, audio-visual aids equipment, including a movie projector, completion of the new football stands and other teaching aids.

Hear Idaho Governor
Twenty-seven Torrance representatives of Prudential Insurance Co. attended a Western Leaders Business Conference at Sun Valley, Ida., Monday through Wednesday this week, according to Harvey L. Harms, manager of the district office here. Idaho Governor Robert E. Smylie was one of the main speakers.
